

Mister Mishkins' Apothecary

Blurb

Mister Mishkins is a magical cat who owns an Apothecary on Mosaic Street - a place that appears mysteriously in town overnight and is only visible to those in need. Whenever anyone enters the Apothecary, Mister Mishkins listens as they share their troubles and fears, before turning to the rows of wooden drawers where, hidden within, is an eclectic mix of cats. These cats take whoever needs them on a journey of transformation, replacing negative emotions with hope, optimism, and a small sprinkling of magic.

Author Samantha Mattocks has created a beautiful world filled with cats, rainbows and butterflies, that take away the worries and fears common to so many of us. This highly illustrated young Middle Grade book is the first in the Magical Mister Mishkins series is sure to become a family favourite.

This book is simply amazing. The story is so beautifully told. The pictures are incredible and help create such a magical story come to life. We couldn't put the book down. My son cannot wait until the second one and keeps asking if it is available. We have got copies and given them as birthday gifts. Every single person has commented on it being such an incredible gift. We certainly recommend you buy a copy and read it and gift a copy to someone special. You will certainly not regret it.

A most beautiful book full of joy and positivity. Not only is this book full of magic and wonderment but it gives a positive message to the younger generation.

Beautifully written and illustrated to perfection.

This is definitely one to treasure and to read over and over again to children (and adults) of all ages!
