

Boss Chics Of The Bay Area

Four Women. Four Hustles. One City.

Blurb

Oakland doesn't forgive weakness - and neither does the truth.

At a private table overlooking the Bay, four powerful women come together for what's supposed to be just another dinner. Instead, secrets surface, loyalties fracture, and lives begin to unravel in ways none of them expected.

Nia Sanae Jackson-Hall, a respected judge who built her life on discipline and integrity, is forced to confront a betrayal that hits closer than any courtroom verdict.

Yvette Marshall, a brilliant surgeon addicted to control, finds herself torn between safety and passion when old wounds and new love collide.

Tierra Anderson-Santiago, a victim advocate who knows every exit from abuse, must finally face the hardest truth of all - her own.

Jazmine "Jazzy" Thomas-Davis, a fearless engineer and business owner, risks everything when she chooses honesty about who she is and who she loves.

Set against the raw beauty, grit, and culture of Oakland and the Bay Area, Boss Chics of the Bay Area is a powerful, emotionally charged novel about sisterhood, survival, love, and choosing yourself - even when it costs you everything.
