

Summer Holiday Mayhem

Blurb

This is the second book in the series: Granny McClutchie. Grandma and Grandpa are on holiday at St Clements, they are looking after their eldest son's cottage for a month while he is away on a business trip. They told their grandchildren, Poppy and Leo they would have two weeks on their own with their little dog Fluff, then they could join them for the remaining two weeks. As soon as they arrived, driven down by their dad Charlie, they were eager to start exploring. The holiday turned into real mayhem, but they loved every minute of it and everyday was the best day. Visits to the castle, where Fluff the dog gets up to mischief. a sail in a pirate ship, digging for treasure and a trip to the zoo, are among the adventures to read about.

When the two weeks are up and it's time to go home there are tears before bedtime, and Leo wants his daddy to move their house, so they can stay there forever. But Grandma may have yet another surprise up her sleeve, she will plan it when she's had a rest from this bout of mayhem!
