

Andrea C Knapp

Andrea C. Knapp's love of writing and all things fantasy began at the age of 11 when she discovered a story about a magic wardrobe. Now a lover of fantasy and dark romance stories, she spends most of her time at her home in Pennsylvania with her head in the clouds or in a book. When she's not dreaming up her next story or living vicariously through someone else's, she spends time with her husband and their two boys. Bale Fyre is her first novel, but she has several other projects in the works.

For centuries, Draven Wilde has worked to erase the witch lineage he believes destroyed his life. It should have ended with her.

Still reeling from her parents' brutal murders, Kenna Scott is captured by the vampire who has hunted her family for generations. But Draven doesn't want to kill her. He wants to bind her to him forever.

Kenna fights him at every turn, but the longer she remains his captive, the harder it becomes to deny what's awakening inside her. Ancient power. Generational magic. And an unnatural, forbidden desire.

Wanting him feels like betrayal. Submission means losing herself forever.

As long-buried secrets come to light and centuries of bloodshed demand revenge, there is no right choice.

Kenna can destroy the vampire who intends to claim her soul...

Or give in to a fate she can't accept.

Reviews (Amazon)

I really enjoyed this book. It was well written with a great plot, and all the characters were excellent, especially Draven and Kenna. I struggled with Kenna's conflicting feelings for Draven, but the unforeseen twist towards the end made sense of those and made for a great ending too. Highly recommended.

I just wanted to start off and say I usually don't read books. I love my poetry but this book pulled me in. I loved how the author created imagery in my brain and also pulled in real life situation some of us have experienced. I loved this book, and I loved how I could relate to multiple characters. Kenna is amazing.. and I love how it encapsulates earth elements!! Must read for sure!!! Thank you for sharing your art Andrea!!
