

The Track Of The Eyelids

Blurb

Based on a true story:

Maria and Ahmed, two neurodivergent Egyptian-American teens, share an unspoken bond built on fleeting glances and misunderstood emotions. What starts as a quiet admiration becomes an overwhelming obsession, distorting their perception of love, reality, and each other. As Ahmed battles emotional outbursts, nightmares, and impulsive decisions, Maria is left to question whether their connection is ever real or just a projection of her longing. They struggle to understand: is their love a delusion or a truth?

Author Samar Khalefa, Genre Romance YA Date May 2025 Formats Paperback and ebook, 96 pages (Paperback)

Available at Amazon HERE (Paperback) and HERE (ebook).

Author Instagram HERE

Reviews (Goodreads) HERE

Notes

The Track of The Eyelids has been produced as a short feature film with AI and has been selected for:

- 1) Lift-Off Filmmaker Sessions Film Festival 2024.
- 2) Lift-Off First Time Filmmaker Sessions Film Festival 2025.

Theme songs have been produced for the story which can be found online.