

Sanctuary's Web

Mercy is resistance

Blurb

In the fractured world left behind by the Merge, Freida Millians walks the line between duty and survival with a grace that costs her dearly. An Advocate, a mother and an empath she carries the weight of people.

When a brutal crime rocks the town of Branford and the ruins of her family's southern steading send a flood of terrified relatives north, Freida is thrust into the centre of a storm she can't shield herself from.

An Inquisitor is in town. Blood magic whispers through the wild-lands. And one dangerous Otherkin loan-shark now owns her nights.

But Freida has never been the kind of woman who stays owned.

Between navigating corrupt councils, rescuing children marked for auction, soothing the emotional tides of a town on the brink, and playing a razor-edged game of power with men who underestimate her, Freida discovers a truth she's long refused to. Sometimes the only sanctuary left... is the one you build yourself. And the past always comes back...

Author L M Britton, Genre Post Apocalyptic Dark Fantasy, Date April 2026, Formats Paperback and ebook, 323 pages (Paperback)

Available at Amazon HERE (Paperback) and HERE (ebook).