

Tattered Hearts And Hopeful Souls

A Christian Devotional For Grieving Hearts

Blurb

When grief shatters your world, you don't need platitudes - you need someone who understands.

After Leanne Davidson's son died, she turned to the only place her shattered heart could find refuge: the arms of Jesus. Tattered Hearts and Hopeful Souls is the devotional she wishes she'd had in those darkest days.

Each of these daily devotions tackles the raw realities of grief: the crushing loneliness after the funeral, the guilt that haunts your thoughts, the holidays that feel impossible, the questions that have no answers. Leanne pairs her honest reflections with Scripture that sustained her, prayers that gave her words when she had none, and poetry that captures what grief truly feels like.

Inside you'll find:

- 30 daily devotions addressing specific grief struggles (loneliness, guilt, changed identity, and struggling to find joy again)
- Biblical promises that hold firm when everything else crumbles
- Heartfelt prayers for each day's journey
- Original poetry expressing the inexpressible
- Breathtaking nature photography from Northwestern Ontario

Whether you've lost a child, spouse, parent, or dear friend - whether the loss is recent or years past - this devotional meets you in the darkness and gently guides you toward peace and comfort.

Your broken heart deserves compassionate, biblically grounded healing. Start your 30-day journey today.

Author Leanne Davidson, Genre Christian Self-Help, Date April 2025, Formats Paperback and ebook, 104 pages (Paperback)

Available at Amazon HERE (Paperback) and HERE (ebook).

Author Website can be found HERE

Review link HERE (Amazon)