

Malama Island

Blurb

Kawika has always felt the pull of something just beyond reach - a Hawaiian name in rural Arkansas, a mysterious island glimpsed across a river, a woman who appears in dreams before she appears in life. As he grows from a curious, gentle boy into a well-travelled man, the thread connecting all of it refuses to let go.

From a Catholic schoolyard in 1950s Arkansas to the black lava fields of Iceland to an island that shouldn't exist - Malama Island follows one man's lifelong pursuit of something just beyond the horizon.

Review (Amazon)

This book was unlike anything I have ever read, and it kept me entertained from start to finish. I loved how the characters' stories were so interwoven and came together at the end of the book. The story itself was thought provoking and made me wonder about life beyond Earth. Would 100% recommend to anyone looking for an easy, unique read.
