

Lightning In The Forest

Blurb

Dave Nicklaus doesn't know what to do with his new position as First Knight of the Offset. As the first human to even set foot in the mystical Realm, home to the 8 mythical beings of lore and energy, Dave was instrumental in stopping a power-hungry Witch from destroying both the world of Man and the Offset. When he is called back into the Offset to assist a group of fairies with an abduction and possible murder, he is thrust into a new nightmare.

When this new threat brings information that may indicate his old adversary may actually be hiding in the Offset, he begins to question all he stands for. Did he really see Drucscilla destroyed? Will this new threat be his final undoing?
