

Ink And Ashes

Blurb

Aurora Vale has always written about monsters.

She just never believed they were real. Until one of them starts hunting her.

Marked by something ancient and powerful, Aurora becomes the target of a creature that should not exist-and the only man who can protect her may be just as dangerous. Atlas Crowe is a demon hunter bound by duty, control, and rules he has never broken... until her.

He was never meant to want anything. But from the moment he sees Aurora, he can't stay away.

As the line between reality and nightmare begins to blur, Aurora must confront the truth about her power, her past, and the darkness that has always been watching her. Because something far older than the demon is awakening.

And it knows her name.
