

Granny McClutchie

Blurb

Granny McClutchie lives in Scotland with Grandpa McClutchie and their cotton wool like dog named Fluff and the budgie who was never named. Their two grandchildren aged four and six come to stay with them for two whole weeks, and Grandma doesn't think she will last out that long. As soon as they turn up on day one the antics begin, Grandma must think of ways to keep them amused. She soon becomes The Dreadful Granny McClutchie villain of the peace as her four-year-old grandson aka Super Cape Boy and his six-year-old sister aka Queen Sparkly of Glitter Land show her who is in charge. Professor Bumblebee aka Grandpa tries his best in every situation to help but is overcome by an ambush of tickles.

They visit the beach and end up on the Dodgems at an amusement fair where Grandma loses her false teeth when she crashes into a giant burger. More trouble awaits when they arrive back home, Fluff has taken leave of his senses and has done a magnificent job of re-arranging the living room.

Grandpa and Grandma take the kids to a holiday camp for a few days, where Super Cape Boy paints a masterpiece and they go on to win a talent competition. Grandma has a friend called Cynthia she calls her Cyn as in sin for short, she looks after the pets while they are away and Grandpa worries that The dog will wreck her house and Grandma will lose her friend and it will be all his fault, somehow..

They return home and all is well with the world, well the house anyway. After a trip to the park with Fluff who has a very enjoyable time. It's swings and roundabouts alright. They go to a takeaway and buy their dinner. Fluff thinks he has been left out and steals someone's sausage. Granny McClutchie loves nothing more than a nice cup of tea and Grandpa just likes to sit and read the newspaper or junk mail, whichever arrives first. Will there be peace ever again? We'll have to wait and see.
